DEDICATION

We the Senior class of 1983 would like to extend our deepest gratitude and sincerest appreciation to Mr. Monroe. He was the driving force behind our many fund raising affairs and was the staunch supporter of the results of these events. (Our Junior Prom being only one example of our success.) His motivation and exuberance not only aided us in displaying our school spirit, but assisted us in developing our characters.

Mr. Monroe, may your voice echo through the halls of Sumner for a long time to come. Eternally grateful,

The Senior Class

APPRECIATION

Thank you Mr. Ritchie.

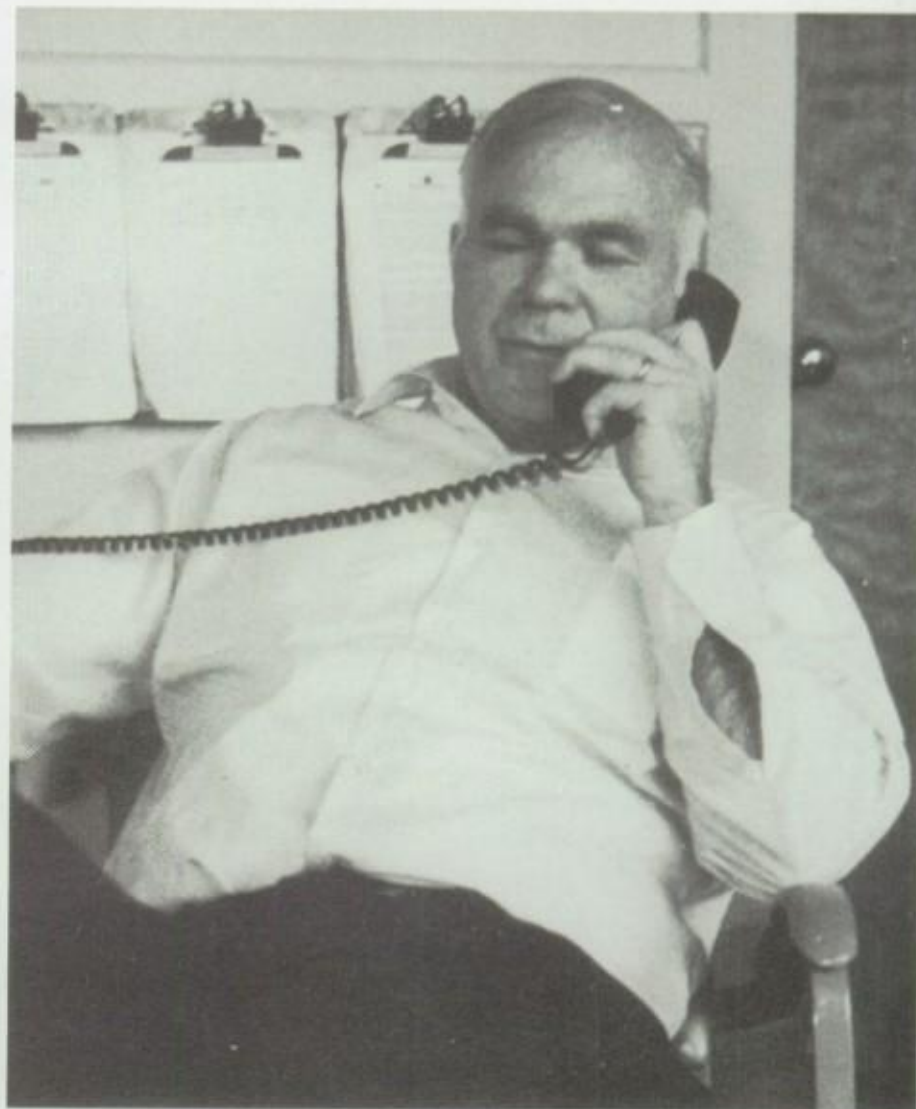

The senior class would like to convey our utmost commendation and laudation for all the drudgery you perform for Sumner and for us. For all those hours cleaning our treasured gym floor; for those priceless bolt cutters that have allowed the forgetful to enter their lockers; for picking up after us at our significant, and ever so superior, basketball games; and for all those numerous late nights after school; for all this and so much more we impart unto you our most cordial thank you.

Sincerely,

The Senior Class

In Memory

This yearbook page is in memory of Wayne A. Wescott. The two years that Wayne shared with us at Sumner were a very touching part of our lives. Wayne was a kind and very understanding person. We deeply appreciate the help he gave us at our Junior Prom, and though Wayne is not with us today, a very special part of him is shared by many people.

The Senior Class

In Memory

Remembering Wayne,

He seems so near,
Yet so far away
When we had a problem
He was always there.

A friend with a heart
That couldn't say no
A friend who cared for us
and loved us so.

A person who loved
every minute of life,
who made his friends happy
and avoided strife.

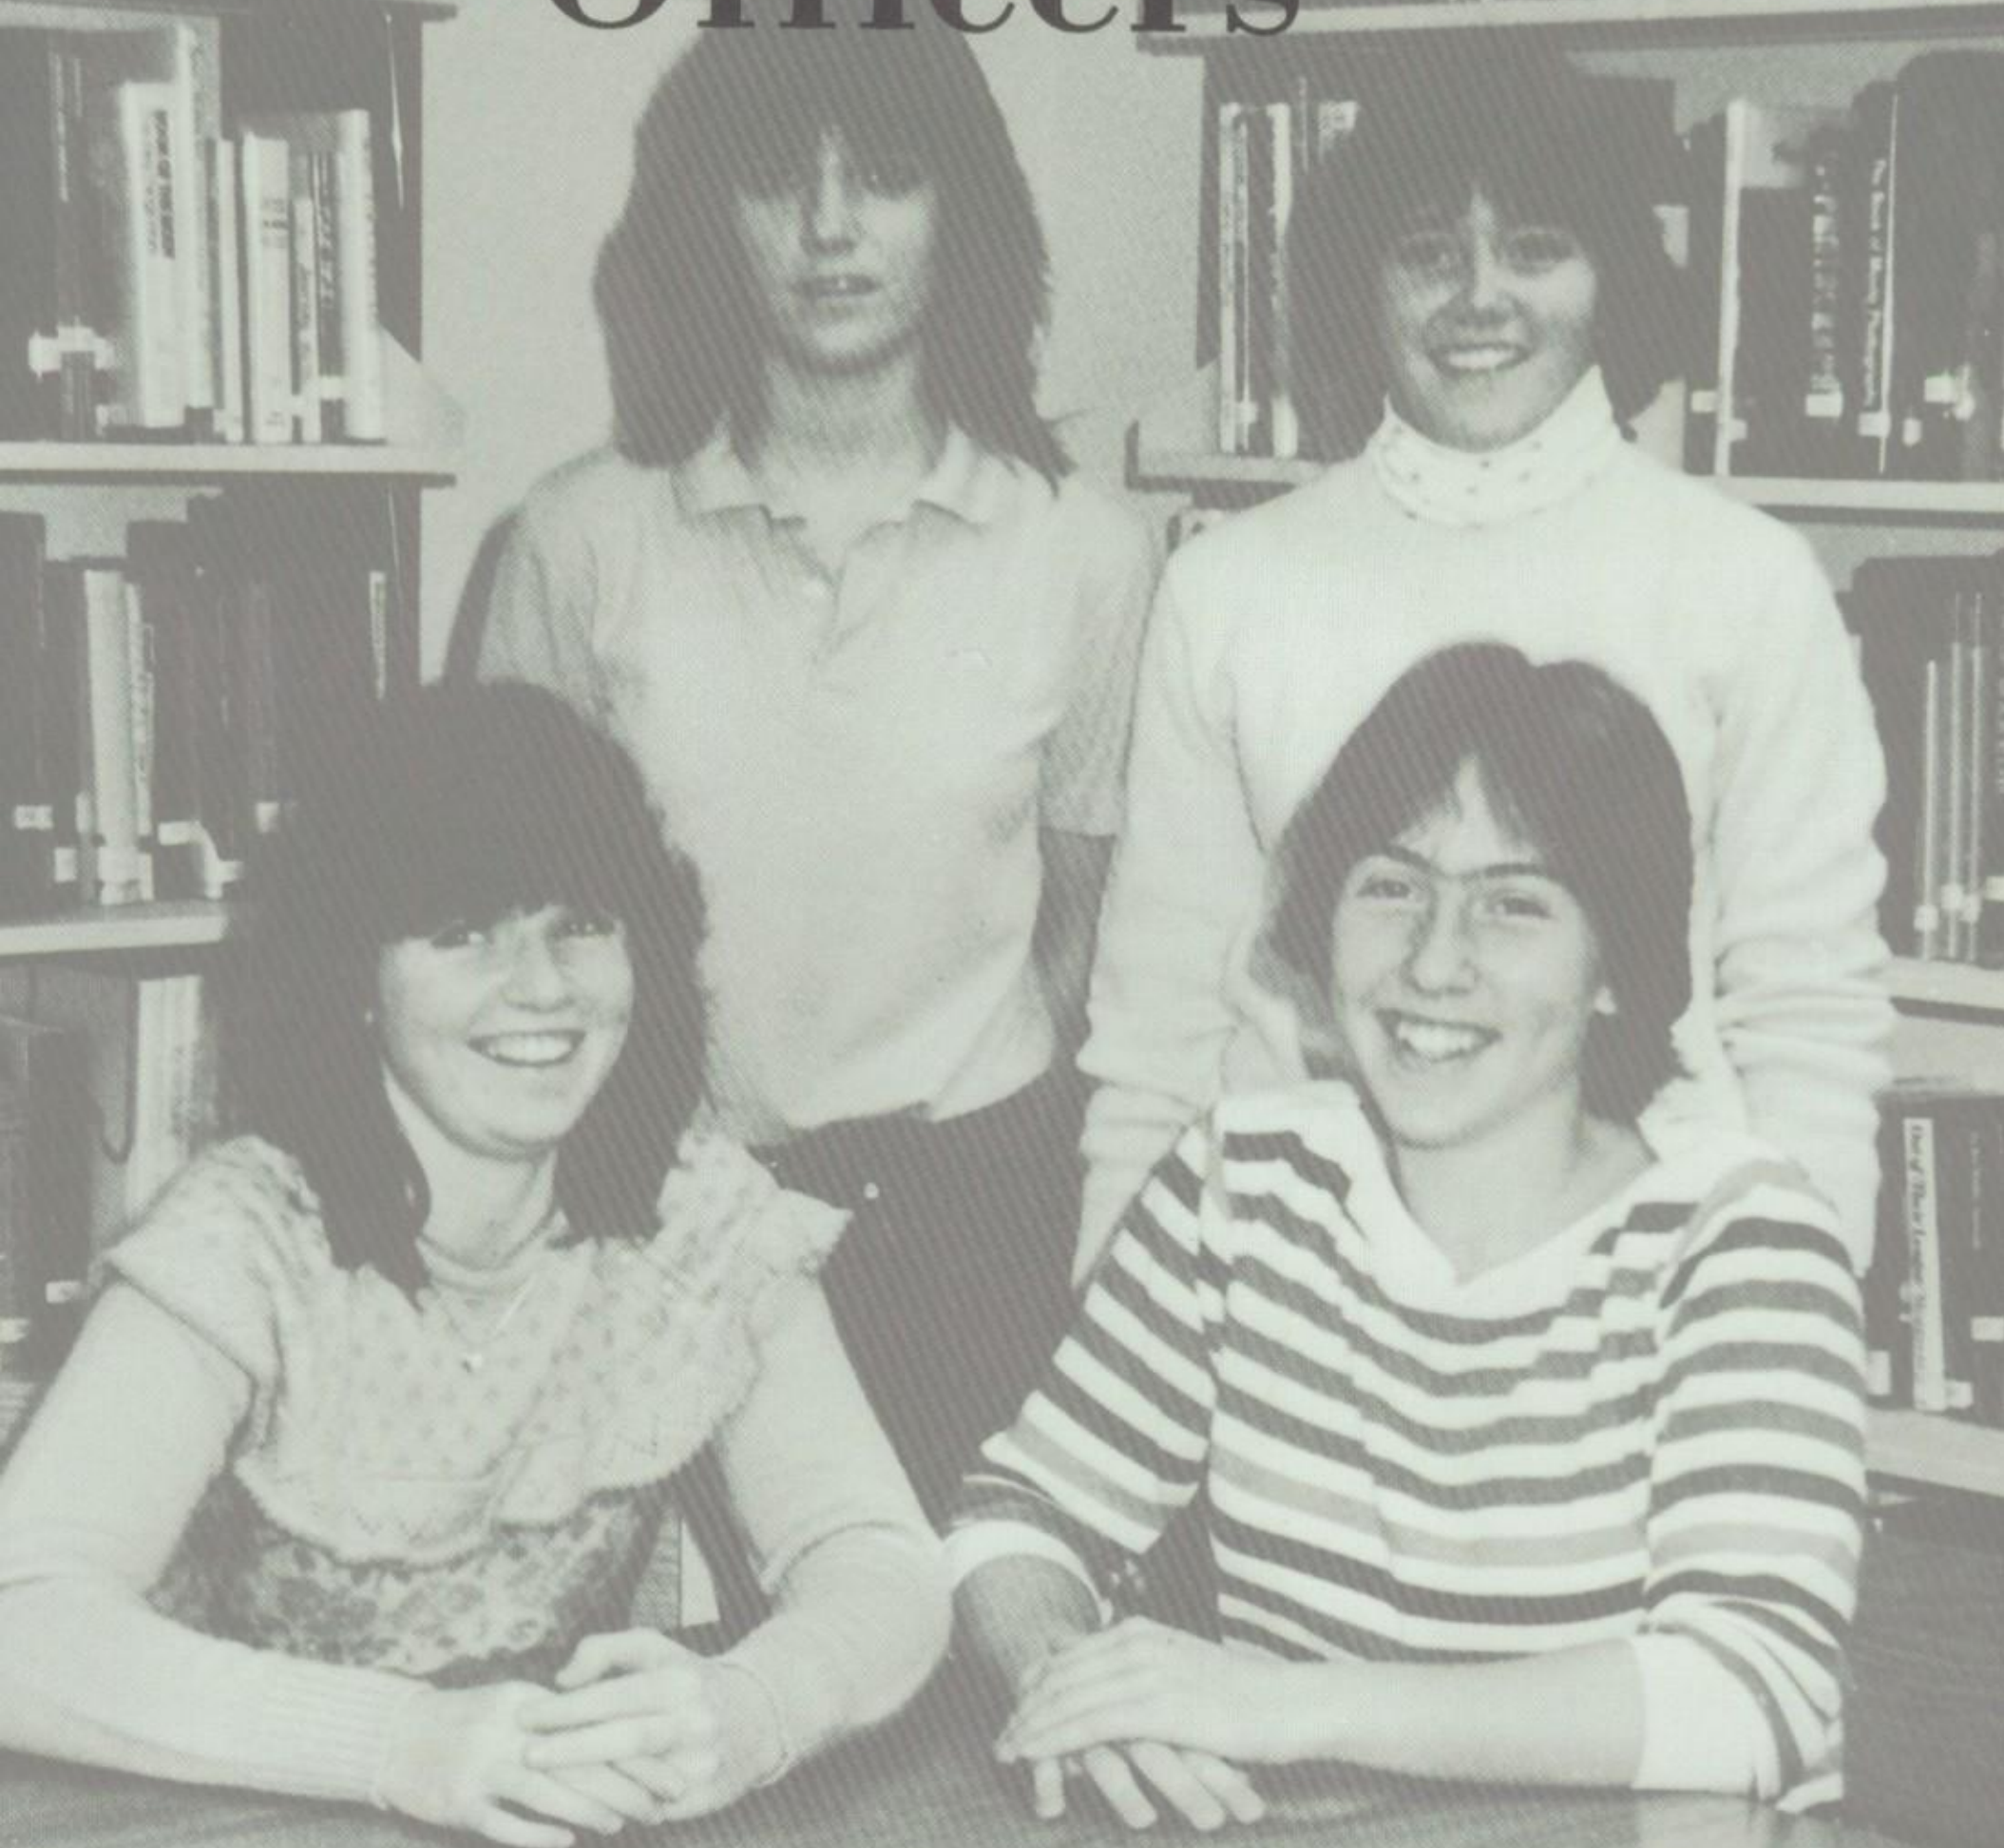

He lived a short life,
But it was a happy one, too.
He had many friends,
and his enemies were few.

ABOUT OUR STAFF

This year's yearbook staff has definitely, had its problems, but when it got down to the wire, the staff came through. I would like to give special thanks to Tanya Chitenden, Business Manager, Janet DiMarco, Junior Editor, and Nick Woodward, Junior Business Manager and Photographer. I would also like to thank my staff: Seniors: Dixie Dyer, Pam Rice, Kathy Smith, Kristian Starkweather, John Bryant, Kevin Colburn, Chucky Bagley, Lisa West, Hope Dow, Sandra Piotter, Zina Vanlandingham, Helen Frye, Roxanne Perry, Terri Lowell, Debbie Pinkham, Judei Brazier, Debbie Thomas, Chris Shangraw, Darlene Hall. Juniors: Suzan Powers and Tammi Rivers. Sophomores: Juli DeRaps and Eva Hedefine. And, of course, thanks to our advisor, Mr. William Monroe. Good luck to the 1984 Yearbook!

Thank You,
Terri Haycock
1983 Yearbook
Editor.

THE END
